

„Speech of Love: Absence“ Performance at FFT Düsseldorf

Love is an unknown situation in which one can get lost. Those who love find themselves in a permanent distortion of time and space. The presence and especially the absence of the beloved person becomes crucial for life. Inspired by „Fragments of a Language of Love“ (1977) by French philosopher Roland Barthes, choreographer and visual artist Elisabeth Bakambamba Tambwe explores our relationship with the Other. Experience a special evening at the theater!

When: Friday, 18.11.2022 from 08:00 p.m.
