

OPERA DÜSSELDORF: DON PASQUALE

Have you always wanted to see an Opera but never have had the right opportunity? Then it's your lucky day! We offer you the possibility for free to see "Don Pasquale", an opera from Gaetano Donizetti, which tells the story of Don Pasquale, who wants to marry in order to disinherit his nephew Ernesto. The bride offered to him by his family doctor, Doctor Malatesta, plays the vicious fury and is none other than Ernesto's fiancée Norina. Don Pasquale must realise that he has become the victim of an intrigue... One almost wants to feel sorry for this gentleman in his prime, as Rolando Villazón sees him. The multi-talented star tenor stages Donizetti's opera „Don Pasquale“ wittily funny with a sentiment that extracts unusually emotional moments from the turbulent comedy. The play is in Italian with German surtitles.

WHEN: Friday, 20.01.2023, from 8 till 10:45 p.m.

WHERE: Deutsche Oper am Rhein (Heinrich-Heine-Allee 16a · 40213 Düsseldorf)

We meet at 7:15 p.m. so that we can hear the introduction to the play. Please register by 11. 01.2023 at kultur@stw-d.de.

Studierendenwerk Düsseldorf
Kamila Chlebnikow / Anaëlle Aubin
Tel. 0211 81-15083
kultur@stw-d.de
www.stw-d.de/kultur

Photo: Hans Jörg Michel

Free