

Cologne - the city of perfume & fragrance

Discover the fascinating story behind one of the most famous perfumes in the world - Eau de Cologne! Together we will visit the Farina Fragrance Museum, the birthplace of this legendary fragrance, and immerse ourselves in the world of perfumer Johann Maria Farina. Let yourself be enchanted by the aromas of an Italian spring morning - oranges, lemons, grapefruit, bergamot and flowers. Find out how Farina's creation made Cologne a world-famous "city of scents" and why his descendants still produce the original perfume today.
